

Alan Carter

is a Senior Tax Economist and Head of the International Tax Dialogue Secretariat (ITD). Before joining the International Tax Dialogue (ITD), which is hosted by the OECD, Alan Carter worked in Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC), advising the government on business tax policy and natural resource taxation. Alan was also HMRC's main tax adviser to the UK's Department for International Development on tax and development issues.